LOCAL AND GENERAL.

—Thanksgiving day to-day.

—Mrs. Pape has moved to town.

—Baxter James and family have moved to town.

—Mrs. D. Berry is visiting in Marble Hill this week.

—Mr. Cooley, Cape County's jailer, was in town Monday.

Robert Drum went to St. Louis Sunday and returned Wednesday.

—J. W. Caldwell and Dr. C. M. Wimer went to Louis Tuesday returned Wednesday.

—For 5 cents you can get 4 Havana cigars at the New Brick Drug Store, Lutesville, Mo.

—Colfax Poe of Hopkins county, Ky., was in Marble Hill last week on business.

—Stanley, the African explorer, says that the population of that country is about 550,000,000.

—Albums in endless variety at the New Brick Drug Store, Lutesville, Mo., call and see them.

—The next State encampment of the G. A. R. will be held on the 10th, 11th and 12th of April, 1890, at Jefferson City.

—Fall is here, and so is the largest stock of men's Boots and Shoes for Fall wear, at W. S. King's.

—Dr. Talley gave us an apple which he says is one of a third crop of June apples. It is small but solid and well formed.

—Wheeler and Alliance goods are going at Wheeler and Alliance prices at W. S. King's, Lutesville.

—Collector Seabough strained his leg severely Monday while stepping hurriedly from the train to the platform.

—Fine Perfumery, a large and elegant stock of all kinds, by the bottle or ounce at Dr. Jacques & Son's Lutesville, Mo.

—From a private letter we learn that James Black, sr., is lying very low with consumption, at his home in Bismarck.

—For $1.75 cents you can get a handsome nickel alarm clock worth $2.50. Where? Of course, the only place is Dr. Jacques & Son's Lutesville, Mo.

—Owing to the rush of job work which has kept us confined to the office, local news is scarce in this issue. We hope our patrons will excuse us.

—A steel bridge over two miles long has been erected over the Ohio river at Cairo, Ill. It is said to be the longest of its kind in the world.

—Ever and anon there transpires something new under the sun. The latest thing is the crushing bargains in Ladies Wrappers at W. S. King's, Lutesville.

—Four hundred dollars reward has been offered for the arrest of Correll Hicks, the man who murdered James Jordan near Marquand. $200 by Madison county and $200 by the State of Missouri.

—A wheel was made during last summer which is 53 feet in diameter and seven and a half feet face. It cost $70,000. The wheel will be used in a copper mines for elevating washings. When apart in sections it made eight car-loads.

—See the handsome walnut cases clocks, at Dr. Jacques & Son's. Prices very low, also a complete line of watches, cases, jewelry and spectacles which they are selling at unheard of low prices.

—Rev. Thomas Marshall reached his home in St. Louis sometime in September. He will not accept permanent work for the present but will spend his time lecturing to the people, on subjects based on what he saw in Mission land.

—Halloo Yourself!—Look out for the grandest stock of Holiday goods you have ever seen, at Dr. Jacques & Son's New Brick Drug Store, Lutesville, Mo. Now we are the acknowledged headquarters for every thing in this line. New goods every day.

—Sheriff Huskey went to Felton Tuesday in compliance with the County Clerk's order.

—An elegant line of China goods such as Dolls, Vases, Cups and Saucers, Mugs and etc. at Dr. Jacques & Son's Lutesville, Mo.

—Forty-nine years ago John Barger bought 23 acres of land near Kansas City. The river so changed its course that now the tract contains a trifle over 200 acres. The court has just decided that Barger's widow has absolute title to the tract against all claimants. —[Ex.]

LOOKOUT—For cold weather! Also lookout for the unprecedented bargains in Ladies Cloaks at W. S. King's, Lutesville.

—In the circuit court of Butler county, on Nov. the 15th, Dr. Harbin was sentenced to be hanged on the 20th of December, 1889, for taking the life of A. L. Smith. The defendant's motion for a new trial was overruled. The prisoner's counsel took an appeal to the supreme court of the State.

—Don't forget that Dr. Jacques & Son, Lutesville, Mo., have a most tempting array of Christmas, New Year and Birthday cards at half price.

—A very filthy and harmful practice which is allowed in the public schools, is permitting the scholars (especially the young ladies) to be continually twisting their mouths out of shape with a wad of "chaw-in" wax" which, usually, is just about the size of a gopher egg. The best of physicians say that chewing gum is injurious to the eyes, and that persons have been known to go totally blind from excessive indulgence.

—To be hoodwinked is very unpleasant to any lady; but to be well and nicely hoodwinked is a pleasure to all of them—hence, go to King's, Lutesville, ladies, for your hoods.

—The tight check rein has got to go. The humanity of this generation has pronounced against it and it has got to go. The time is within calling distance when the cruelty inflicted by it will be recognized as coming within the purview of the laws enacted to prevent cruelty to animals. The barbarous element in society is rapidly coming under the restraining influence of humane sentiments. The man who causes the arrest and punishment of another for the brutal treatment of a dumb beast, is doing God's work. —[Fruit Grower's Journal.]

—Numbers were fascinated by the St. Louis Fair and Exposition. And numbers there are who are fascinated by the fine Fascinators and their low prices at W. S. King's, Lutesville.

—The following notice was sent to County Clerk Wells on the 25th inst:

"You are hereby notified to remove Andrew Huskey, who is a county patient from your county, at your earliest convenience. He will not probably be benefited by further treatment in this asylum hence this notice."

—W. R. Rodas, Supt. and Physician."

Sec. 4142 of the revised statute requires the County Clerk to issue his warrant to the Sheriff in case of five days, and the Sheriff to remove such patient in twenty days.

—A few short moons and our hill sides will be spotted with the folks tobogganning. But even right now Toboggans cannot be bought anywhere as cheap as they can at W. S. King's, Lutesville.

—A blower The chigger may elch with all of his might and the meekin bird rock and sing, the Missouri crop it takes the cake, and corn, you bet it is king. The cricket may creek and the froglets frog, and the farmer sing his strain for the Missouri corn is away on top, the result of plenty of rain. The chinch-bug may chinch and the grass-hopper hop and the hot winds make you tire, but if any one says there are such things here, just call him a horrible liar. Oklahoma may boom and Texas may howl and Kansas shoot off her chop, but Missouri is the place to get a good home and to raise a big crop. —[Ex.]

—For presents of any kind or description at Dr. Jacques & Son's is the place. We have everything in the fancy goods and holiday line, at a price that will make you a big winner. —[Ex.]

Black Drug Store will convince you that we have what you want. See the little folks delight in a handsome Christmas tree with Santa Claus near it in our show window. We also still offer big bargains in albums and ladies Pocket Books also a superb line of the confectionery. See Holiday Circulars.

—Before blacking your kitchen range, if quite dirty, wash it well with strong soap suds to which is added a good quantity of kerosene oil. You cannot think how much more easily and quickly the work of blacking and polishing the stove will be accomplished. It is an excellent plan also to mix blacking with turpentine, using it, of course, on a cold stove. If the hands are washed with soapy water before beginning the work the blacking will come off them much more easily. Also small paper bags are nice to slip your hands in before taking the brush—much better than old gloves or stocking feet. —[Ex.]

—The chilly blast of Winter will soon be howling round your door. It's a chilly fact to all competition that THE ONE PLACE in Bollinger county where you can buy the best Winter Boots and Shoes for the least money is at W. S. King's Lutesville.

—One of the most important lessons to each young person of both sexes is the value of keeping accounts. No one who keeps a strict account of his income and expenditures will be likely to let the latter exceed the former. The account-book becomes a sort of Mentor if one is consulting him that he ought, unhesitatingly to draw one's attention to the fact that he is not quite honest, for the fact is dishonest to say what you have not the money to pay for. In short, the account-book is just what makes the difference between the happiness of living within your income, and the misery of going beyond it. This would place little dependence upon a merchant who transacted his business without keeping a set of books. If you are the possessor of an income of ten dollars a week it is just as important to you to know how that money is being spent, and to be able to tell at a glance whether or not you are getting the greatest possible amount of good for it, as it is for the merchant to know how his greater capital is being used and what returns it is making. —[American Agriculturist.]

—Grand Christmas scheme free. You may be entitled to one or more of the elegant prizes offered by Dr. Jacques & Son, Lutesville, Mo., in their annual prize distribution call on them and get particulars. It costs you nothing to try it and all have the same chance for the handsome prizes.

—The fence of the future seems to be the wire and picket. Most of the fence machines are made to use five wires. But three wires are used in this section. As we have the best of the wire, we are going to make a fence of three wires, each strand galvanized, three strands, each a fence half in this manner is sure to stand, to laster how likely it is to be strained at all, as the picket will stretch, and the wires will into the corners to hold them out of place. The best way to use these three wires, about the same length, wires, stretching these right in their place, have the machine that will stretch the wires, and then the fence is ready to use. —[Ex.]

—I wish to say to the public that I have closed out of the boarding-house business and will be found in the Family Groceries and Restaurant business in the old corner stand in front of the west door of the courthouse. I respectfully solicit a liberal patronage of all my friends. Call and see me.

SAMUEL J. LESLEY.

—It will be remembered by many of our readers that the P. M. B. A. store at Caruth was recently burglarized and the Gebhart Bros. were charged with the crime. Last Friday night a band of men proceeded to the jail and awoke Vinson, the jailer, and compelled him to surrender the keys. They then took one of the brothers, the other was out on bail, to the woods, placed a rope around his neck and strung him up six times in an endeavor to extort a confession. He refused to confess and was then warned to leave the county; he however went to the house of his attorney, Mr. Tribble, where he was cared for until the day of the preliminary examination when he was admitted to bail. The other Gebhart was also taken to the woods, but with the exception of a bad scare was not harmed. —[Dunklin Co. News, November 21.]

—About three weeks since the Co-operative store of the Farmers Mutual Benefit Association at Caruth, Dunklin county, was entered at night, the side taken out of the house, blown open and something over $1,000 which had been deposited with the manager, J. R. Pool, by the stockholders to buy cotton, taken out. Shortly afterwards a man by the name of Gebhart, a blacksmith, who ran a shop at that place was charged with the crime, arrested and put in jail at Kennett. On last Saturday night a body of masked men, about thirty in number, went to the jail, forced the jailer to give up the keys and Gebhart, and our further information is that the masked men took Gebhart to a tree and tried to force a confession from him by hanging him—some five times they strung him up—and on being let down he stoutly denied all connection with the matter, and asserted that Pool was the man who got the money. The mob being unable to force anything more from Gebhart, released him but gave him hours in which to get out of the county. Instead of going Gebhart went to the house of Mr. Price Tribble and remained until morning, then went and put himself in charge of the sheriff, saying he had no reason to leave and wasn't going to do it. Gebhart is not the only one who believes Pool got the money, and from the best information that we are able to gather, we are very much inclined to think that the farmers of that vicinity who have lost their money will sooner or later have another illustration of the fact Pool brings no good to them. We await developments. —[Enterprise-Messenger.]

or 20 little boys racing over the streets, and the larger ones playing checkers, while some the older ones were lounging around on the streets whittling. Is this the right way to serve the Lord? We acknowledge, with shame our faults and this is one of them. Let ever church turn out next Sunday and attend all the schools, and others will follow. We would like to see all of the churches and Sunday Schools prosper. It speaks well for a town.
